Procedures and Policy

The Edge has developed a range of Policies and Procedures to efficiently and consistently manage the delivery of Fabrication Lab programs.

Edge Fabrication Lab resources are accessed by four different client groups:

- Community Use via Community Lab - access by individuals and informal groups
- Fee For Service and Partnerships - access to resources by Education, NFP and Corporate sector
- Program Development and capacity building
- SLQ units access to Edge support or Resources

Terms and Conditions

In order to book and use the resources in the Fabrication Lab, The Edge Fabrication Lab User:

- Has agreed to The Edge Terms of Use and Booking Terms and Conditions
- Has signed up for a State Library Account.
- Has attended all relevant inductions
- Has completed and signed all relevant paperwork

Tools and Plant Access Policy

Competencies and other requirements for different Levels of Tool and Plant (TP) Access in The Edge Fabrication Lab Space.

There are 3 levels of induction for the tools/plant that can be accessed in The Edge Fabrication Lab. With each of these graduated levels of induction, individuals are authorized by Edge management to use the tools/plant under different levels of supervision. Each level of access also carries different levels of responsibility.
